INFORMATION SOURCES

Total Program Costs: This is the total tuition, fees and average estimated textbook and equipment expense at the current tuition rate for a student attending full time who completes the minimum credit hours required for graduation. There may be a slight difference between minimum credit hours required for graduation and total credit hours required if all courses are taken at DeVry. Credit hour differences may benefit students with qualifying transfer credit.

Average Program Cost: The figure displayed is a calculation of the average tuition, required fees and textbook charges for students using Title IV aid who graduated from the program within the normal program length between 7/1/2022-6/30/2023. Please note, this figure is an average and does not represent the actual tuition, fees and books charged to each student.

Average Student Loan Debt: The figure displayed is a calculation of the average total debt (including federal, private and institutional loans) of students using Title IV aid who completed this program within the normal program length between 7/1/2022-6/30/2023. Please note, this figure is an average and actual debt amounts could vary.

Completion rate for first-time, full-time students (for both DeVry University and all U.S. Colleges) is the U.S. Department of Education's measure of the percentage of students who are new to college and entered full-time in the Fall of 2016, who complete the program within 150% of program length (for a bachelor's degree program, normal time is usually 4 years, and 150% of normal time is 6 years).

Completion rate for all new full-time "DeVry University students" is defined similarly to the "first-time, full-time" completion rate above except it includes those who previously attended another institution. DeVry University calculates this measure based on DeVry University data for the program from the Fall 2016 cohort.

Loan Default Rate is the percentage of borrowers (4 year U.S. Colleges and DeVry University) entering repayment in 2020 who defaulted on their loans within 3 years. Provided by the U.S. Department of Education and can be found at: <http://www2.ed.gov/offices/OSFAP/defaultmanagement/cdr.html>. In addition, a Loan Repayment Rate for former DeVry University students as well as those who attended other institutions can be found on the College Scorecard: <https://collegescorecard.ed.gov/>.
